

What's Happening in Washington

Webinar Sponsorship Opportunity

About the Host

Kuna Tavalin, Senior Policy and Advocacy Advisor for CEC, has two decades of experience in public affairs, advocacy and strategic planning in the education and human services arenas.

Kuna focuses on federal policy encompassing appropriations, special education, early education, family engagement, child welfare and juvenile justice. Kuna began her career in the U.S. Senate where she covered a wide range of issues from education and child welfare to housing and transportation.

Contact Sharyn Weiss,
Director of Strategic Partnerships

(703) 264-9405

sweiss@exceptionalchildren.org

<https://exceptionalchildren.org/about-us/business-opportunities>

A Partnership that Aligns with Advocacy

The Council for Exceptional Children has a long history as a leader in advocating on behalf of children and young adults with exceptionalities for the human and fiscal resources necessary to enable each individual to attain their highest level of education and employment and life success.

Our influence in shaping the policies that support publicly funded education, special education, and early intervention is well-recognized and valued by legislators and other policymakers as well as other professional organizations throughout the field.

If your organization shares our passion and commitment and would like to align itself with the work we are doing on Capitol Hill, this is a great opportunity to sponsor a quarterly webinar.

- Webinars are scheduled once per quarter
- One hour in length
- Led by CEC's Senior Policy & Advocacy Advisor Kuna Tavalin
- Dates based on newsworthy DC Capitol Hill events related to Special Education we will look to schedule around

Sponsorship Benefits

- Logo included in all marketing and promotions
- Sponsor will moderate the webinar
- CEC to introduce and thank sponsor during the webinar

Sponsorship Cost: $2,500

Testimonial:

"I was just able to watch a recording of "What's Happening in Washington," and I wanted to say thank you for putting together and sharing such an informative and valuable session. I am grateful for your daily work, and this additional effort to bring the CEC community up to speed on legislation and funding."